

COME ALONG TO

LANGUAGE PARTY CANBERRA

A summer storytelling
event in the park

1st December
5pm Glebe Park, Civic

Celebrate UN 2019 Year of Indigenous Languages with an evening featuring storytellers from Ngunawal Country, Asia, Africa and Europe. Listen to the sounds and rhythms of the original languages, with translations made into English. Afterwards, join our fireside chat with local traditional custodian, Wally Bell, for an intimate account of Canberra's Ngunawal culture.

TICKETS
$10 adult
$5 concession
(students/pensioners/minority language community members)
$20 families
(under 5s free)

languageparty.org/canberra

With support from the ACT Government,
under the City Renewal Authority's City
Grants Program, and the Aesop Foundation.

CITY
RENEWAL
AUTHORITY

